

PHOTOS BY NANCY FENGLY & ERIC MART

LEGEND
 Map not to scale
 Giant Sequoia tree
 Other tree of interest
 Bridge
 X-X Bench
 Restroom
 Wheelchair Accessible Trail
 Stream
 Temporary route by downed tree, NOT wheelchair accessible

Trail of 100 Giants Points of Interest:

- #1 Proclamation Tree
- #2 Sugar Pine
- #3 Impaled top of Downed Giant Sequoia
- #4 The Goose Pen
- #5 White Fir with Lichen
- #6 Marker about Squirrels & Sequoia
- #7 Chinquapin Bush
- #8 Giant Sequoia & Cedar grown together
- #9 Two Giant Sequoia's fell over bridge #3 on Sept. 30, 2011. Look closely, you'll see the bridge is still in tact.
- #10 The Sentinel's
- #11 The Root
- #12 Meditation Bench
- #13 Giant Sequoia with Fir Tree in front
- #14 Root of Giant Sequoia
- #15 Two Giant Sequoia's grown together
- #16 Mound at base of Giant Sequoia
- #17 Giant Sequoia with a self-created bench on the east side of the tree
- #18 Meadow with Skunk Cabbage
- #19
- #20 Tree Types

Other Features:

- Fallen Giant Loop
- Meadow and Stream
- White Thorn
- Termite damaged stump
- Temporary route around downed tree

Directions:

- To Kernville and California Hot Springs
- To Ponderosa, Camp Nelson & Springville
- To Parking Lot
- To Campground
- To Campground Lot Entrance

Logos and Contact Info:

- Trail of 100 Giants
- Redwood Meadow Campground
- Giant Sequoia National Monument Association
- Mercantile (Kernville and Springville)

121 Piute on Circle Park
 Kernville CA 93238
 760-376-6158

35627 Hwy 190
 Springville CA 93265
 559-539-3004

Decent Tours are available for large groups. Please call the Giant Sequoia Mercantile at the Springville Visitor Center, 559-539-3004, for information and reservations.

Giant Sequoia National Monument Association is pleased to provide this map as part of our educational program on the Monument. Please support GSNMA so we may continue serving you and others — go to: www.gsnma.org